

PAVOT COLLECTION
VASE
Designed by Colin King Studio LLC

With ancient roots interpreted through a modern lens, the Pavot Vase brings a sense of history and sophistication to any setting. Cast in aluminium and finished with characterful brown bronzed patina for an antique look, the base of the vase draws inspiration from the delicate form of a poppy seed head, with subtle curves that echo nature's organic beauty and give the design its French name. It can be used to display floral arrangements or branches, adding height and elegance to a dining table or hallway console, or as a standalone sculpture for a refined look.
